

DEVON RFU JUNIOR SHIELD FINAL

TORQUAY

EXETER
SARACENS

SUNDAY, APRIL 28TH

LIVE AT 3 PM

AT THE RECREATION GROUND

Good afternoon and thank you for joining us here at The Rec for this season's Devon Junior Shield Final between Torquay Athletic RFC and Exeter Saracens RFC.

A warm welcome to the Exeter Saracens Committee, players and supporters - we hope you enjoy your time with us today. A further welcome to our referee officials; Andy Coles OBE, Jon Murray and Alfie May.

We head into the match in the same good form that resulted in us winning the Devon RFU Team of the Month in March. Local reporters named The Rec as a fortress this season, with only one home loss. We have amassed an impressive 960 points, only conceding 199, giving us a huge points difference of 761 (up 107% on last season)!

As a team, our 147 tries saw us ranked 9th nationally (across all leagues from the Premiership to level 9) and a number of our players have reached some big career milestones;
50th Cap - Adam Dart, Ryan Hanauer and George Gibson.
100th Cap - Ash Sharp. 200th Cap - Steve Smith.

A win today would finish the season off nicely after last season's heartbreak against Withycombe.

Exeter Saracens have also enjoyed a successful season, with their steady home form seeing them finish 4th in the Counties II Devon League. As always, we look forward to seeing former Tics favourite Tom Whitford back on Torquay soil.

Games with Sarries have always been close, but in league action Torquay have edged the better result winning 7 of the 10 played.

To our supporters - Let's ramp up the atmosphere...
Let's be the 16th man... Let's bring home the silverware!

Up the Tics!
